New Business:

Wood County Planning Commission Activities Report

Staff activities for May 2008 will be reviewed.

Zoning – Troy Township

William and Marcia Lafferty have submitted a request to rezone approximately 5.6 acres of land in Road Tract 52 of Troy Township from an A-1 Agricultural zoning classification to a C-2 Community Retail zoning classification. The property was formerly known as the Lemoyne Elementary School. The purpose of this request, as stated on the application, is that the applicant wishes to use the property as an auction house.

Zoning – Weston Township

The Weston Township Trustees have submitted a new zoning resolution for Planning Commission review and recommendation. This new resolution is intended to replace the current Weston Township Zoning Resolution which was last updated in 1994. Changes include the addition of regulatory language for adult entertainment, residential wind turbines, new definitions, and new minimum lot area and frontage requirements.

Review and selection of FY08 CDBG Applications

All applications to the FY08 CDBG Program will be reviewed and up to six (6) will be selected for recommendation to the Wood County Commissioners
